"Matt Snow was absolutely FANTASTIC. Multiple guests told me when they entered the hotel for my cocktail hour they thought Frank Sinatra was simply being played by the DJ then they saw Matt singing and couldn't believe it!! Matt Also sang through dinner for us, and all of my guests (including my husband and I) thoroughly enjoyed his entertainment. The compliments from my guests just kept flooding in. I would most definitely hire Matt again and can't say enough how pleased we were with his performance; he is a class act."
