Re: Thank you for your participation in the Perfect Wedding Guide customer events

Matt:

On behalf of Perfect Wedding Guide, we want to thank you for participating in our customer events. The quality of your performances is always recognized by the wedding vendors in attendance as the best entertainment provided them. The songs and the manner in which you sing them touches people. And, you always reach out to people in a way that balances entertaining everyone with providing them an opportunity to talk and mingle.

We specially enjoy working with you because we know you will have all your equipment set up and be ready to perform eliminating the need for us to send reminders or constantly follow-up.

We wish you success in all your performance opportunities and know that any time you perform you will likewise bring the best in entertainment to the people in attendance. Please do not hesitate to refer any one to us that may want to know more about your performances.

Sincerely,

Jack Phelps
