

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

SMALL BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

KELLIE GEIST/STAFF
Tai, left, and Naïke Pomphu recently opened Tong's Thai in Milford.

Tong's Thai opens in Milford

A new Thai restaurant recently opened in Milford. Tong's Thai, owned by Tai and Naïke Pomphu and their 5-year-old son Tyler, is in the old Bangkok Thai building at 1055 Main St.

The Pomphus closed the restaurant to host a grand opening ceremony and celebration June 7.

The Cincinnati Sinatra Matt Snow has been performing every Monday from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Tong's Thai is open from 11 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday and from noon to 10 p.m. Saturday. The restaurant is closed Sunday.

The lunch and dinner entrees range between $9 and $15 and carryout is available.

For more information, call 248-2999.

KELLIE GEIST/STAFF
Matt Snow, who specializes in singing Frank Sinatra songs, is scheduled to be a regular Monday night performer at Tong's Thai in Milford.

Student Tribunal President James Stewart, left, and student Brittany Meri McDonough to cut. The dedication ceremony for James and Kathryn McDonough.

McDonough

By Kellie Geist
kgeist@communitypress.com

When professor Jeff Bauer thinks about why he wanted to rename the Educational Services Building at UC Clermont James and Kathryn McDonough Hall, two words come to mind – exemplary leadership.

"I'm reading a book this summer called 'Exemplary Leadership' and I think that really defines what Jim and Kathryn have done for us. As I look in one of the tables in the book, it has the characteristics of the most admired leaders. It has honesty, forward-looking, competent, inspiring, intelligent, fair-minded, broad-minded, supportive, straight-forward, dependable and cooperative ... All of these things Jim

