

PENNY RICHMOND TESTIMONIAL

Review received on 1-4-2019 at 3:05 pm (PDT)

Great entertainment for any adult age group.

Matt entertained at our Retail Manager's Christmas dinner. It was a short notice and he accommodated very eagerly. Our group has many different age groups and he was able to reach out to each of them.

They may not have know who Frank Sinatra was but they knew the songs. He had a good mixture of holiday and casual songs that most everyone knew.

Matt also engaged with the team during the show. His humor was very well received and appropriated.

Matt's timing was also strong. He knew when to engage in conversations and when to just relax and entertain. Matt also plan his time wisely. He arrived early to set up his stage and had all his material present. Very classy man! At the end he had a clear message that our team could relate to and it was a great take-a-way for our team. We would defiantly reach out to Matt again.

The team really enjoyed the entire show.
